

son employed to take care of the public buildings, two hundred and forty dollars; to the superintendent of the public buildings and grounds, one hundred dollars; to the Maryland Institute, for the promotion of the mechanic arts, five hundred dollars; to the rent of house for fire engine, fifty dollars; to the expense of laboratory for State agricultural chemist, four hundred and fifty dollars; to the purchase of implements for the State agricultural chemist, fifty dollars; to the members of the appeal tax court of Baltimore, one hundred and fifty dollars; to the register of the city of Baltimore, three hundred dollars; to the commissioner of the land office, for compensation for services under chapter twenty-three of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, fifty dollars; to the cost of printing the comptroller's annual report, five hundred dollars; to the expense of distributing bound copies of the laws, journals and documents and Maryland reports to the clerks and registers of wills of this State, and to the Governors of the several States, seventy-five dollars; to the executive for the contingent fund, provided in the constitution, to be placed at his disposal, six thousand, seven hundred dollars; and the Governor is hereby authorised to expend seven hundred dollars of the contingent fund, or so much as may be necessary for the purchase of furniture and the repairs of the executive chamber; to the contingent fund for the library, including the expense of binding books, of lights, portorage and freights, of stationery, menial service and assistance, of advertising and printing and of all other incidental expenses, one thousand, three hundred dollars; to special judges, appointed in pursuance of the twenty-second section of the fourth article of the constitution, three thousand, five hundred dollars; to the purchase of stationery for the Legislature, two thousand, five hundred dollars; to the purchase of fuel and lights, one thousand two hundred dollars; to the contingent expenses of the treasury department, one thousand dollars; to the printing of blank licenses for the comptroller and the purchase of cases for the keeping of the same, one thousand dollars; to the payment of the interest on the public debt of this State, that is to say, the interest falling due quarterly on the currency debt of the State, four hundred and ten thousand, two hundred dollars; and to the interest on the public debt falling due semi-annually, and payable in London, including costs of exchange, remittances and commissions, two hundred and sixty-seven thousand, seven hundred and fifty dollars; Provided, however, that all that portion of the in-

Provisoos.