

dollars, the following fees, to wit: for issuing each summons in debt or damages, fifteen cents, for each summons for witnesses, including all the witnesses applied for at the same time, twenty-five-cents; venire to summons free holders, twenty-five cents; fieri facias, twenty-five cents; vendition exponas, thirty-five cents; scire facias, thirty-five cents; every supersedeas, each justice, fifteen cents; every oath or affidavit, five cents; probate of account, ten cents; every judgment rendered where there is no trial, fifteen cents; every judgment rendered on trial, fifty cents; commitment, fifteen cents; release, fifteen cents; warrant of attachment, twenty-five cents; venire to summon a jury in a case of forcible entry and detainer, seventy-five cents; taking inquisition and return thereon, four dollars; warrant of restitution, seventy-five cents; taking every acknowledgment of every deed, twenty-five cents, from each person making an acknowledgment; taking any other acknowledgment, fifteen cents; a pass, twenty-five cents; certificate of stays, forty cents; issuing summons in replevin, twenty-five cents; issuing writs of attachment, twenty-five cents; taking replevin, or other bonds, twenty-five cents; and in all cases where the demand in controversy exceeds the sum of fifty dollars, they shall respectively charge, have and be entitled to receive the following fees, to wit: for issuing each summons in debt or damages, and making docket entry, twenty-five cents; rendering judgment on all trial cases, fifty cents; entering judgment by confession, twenty-five cents; entering continuance ten cents; to be paid by the party applying for the same; Provided, objection be made by the opposite party, search or transcript from the docket, ten cents; and they shall charge, have and be entitled to receive the following fees, in criminal cases, to be paid by the county for issuing each State's writ, twenty-five cents; search warrant, twenty-five cents; taking recognizance of witness, each fifteen cents; taking recognizances, in each case reported to court, twenty-five cents; to any justice of the peace for holding an inquest upon deceased persons, the sum of five dollars.

Other fees.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That justices of the peace, be and they are hereby authorised to have, receive and charge all, and any fees, which they are now authorised by law to have, receive and charge, other than those enumerated and prescribed by the first section of this law.