

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That so much of said costs and expenses as is due to persons resident in the county where said cases are tried or removed to, shall first be paid by that county in the same manner and at the same time as similar costs and expenses in cases originating in said county are now levied and paid.

Manner of being paid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the county commissioners for the county from whence such cases are removed shall at the first annual levy after the returns made by the clerks as herein required, levy in gross for the use of the county where said cases are removed for trial so much of said costs and expenses as are required by the third section of this act, to be first paid by that county and the residue for the several parties entitled thereto by said return.

Authority to levy.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the returns of the clerks of the courts required by this act shall be made annually in the month of July, between the first and tenth of said month and for each neglect by any clerk of the duty imposed by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, recoverable by indictment, one-half thereof to the informer and the residue thereof to the county whereof he is clerk for the benefit of the school fund.

Returns.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act shall be applicable to all cases removed to or from the city of Baltimore, and that in cases removed from said city the returns provided for in the second section of this act shall be made to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, who shall levy and pay the costs in the same manner as is provided in the fourth section of this act.

Provisions applicable.

[Faint, mirrored text from the reverse side of the page, appearing as bleed-through.]