

any retailer or retailers of spirituous, fermented or malt liquors in the town of East Newmarket, it shall and may be lawful for a majority of the commissioners aforesaid, in town meeting assembled, to cancel or withdraw any such license in the same manner as the judges of the several county courts are now authorised to do.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any retailer or retailers of any spirituous, fermented or malt liquors shall continue to retail as aforesaid, after the cancellation or withdrawal of their licenses, then the said retailer or retailers shall be subject to the same penalties as are now imposed by law on individuals for selling without license.

In force.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 284.

Passed Mar. 10, 1854, AN ACT to regulate the sale and purchase of stone coal in Washington county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful to sell or purchase stone coal in Washington county by measure, but all stone coal sold and purchased in said county shall be sold and purchased by weight, at the rate of twenty-two hundred and forty pounds, avoirdupois, to the ton.

To be sold by weight.