

CHAPTER 285.

AN ACT to allow Benjamin Berry, of Bladensburg, Prince George's county, to close a street or alley in said village.

Passed Mar. 10, 1854,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Benjamin Berry, of Bladensburg, Prince George's county, be, and he is hereby authorised to close the street or alley in said village, running between the lot purchased by him of the said county, known as the warehouse lot, and the lot now owned by Dr. Archibald Magruder; Provided, the same be closed at his own cost.

Power to shut up.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

In force.

CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT to authorise the exchange of part of the public lot, in the town of Elkton, for a part of the adjoining lot.

Passed Mar. 10, 1854,

WHEREAS, by a certain indenture, bearing date on the first day of September, one thousand, seven hundred and eighty-three, Clement Holliday and Nathaniel Ramsay, Esquires, as commissioners of confiscated property on the part and behalf of the State of Maryland, did grant and convey to certain persons in said indenture named, their heirs and assigns, a certain lot of ground, lying and being in Elkton, now called Elkton, in Cecil county, to be held by them

Preamble.