

any transportable articles to and from any point or points on the property of the Patapsco company in Anne Arundel county, from and to any point or points in the city or county of Baltimore; Provided, the tolls shall not exceed the following rates: for every foot passenger, five cents; horses and riders, twelve and a-half cents; car or wagon with one horse, mule or ox, fifteen cents; cart or wagon with two horses, mules or oxen, seventeen cents; cart or wagon with three horses, mules or oxen, twenty-five cents; carts or wagons with four horses, mules or oxen, thirty-five cents; pleasure carriages with one horse, eighteen and three quarter cents; with two horses, thirty-seven cents; with four horses, seventy-five cents; each head of horses, mules, or cattle, eight cents; sheep and swine, &c., five cents.

The right to hold property extended.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the rights to hold property under the act of which this is amendatory, shall be extended so that the Patapsco company aforesaid may purchase and hold for their use any quantity of land in the city of Baltimore, not exceeding three hundred feet square, and in Baltimore county a quantity of land not exceeding three hundred feet square, at the northern termination of the present bridge of said company over the Patapsco river, commonly called Cromwell's Bridge.

Power to borrow money.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the Patapsco company aforesaid shall have power to borrow money and to issue bonds or other evidences of loans made to it, and to pledge the property of the company for the payment of the same or its interest; Provided, that no note, certificate or scrip or other evidence of debt shall be issued by said company to be used as a currency or in the nature of money.

In force?

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage, and the Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act at pleasure.