

CHAPTER 301.

AN ACT to lay out and establish a new election district in Prince George's county, to be called the ninth election district. Passed Mar. 10, 1854.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new election district be formed and established in Prince George's county, to be called and known as the ninth election district. Called ninth district.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the boundaries of said new election district shall be as follows, to wit: beginning at a point on Piscataway branch at its intersection with the new cut road, and running up and with said branch, until it intersects the Marlborough and Piscataway road, thence with said road to a point where a road leading to Centreville commences, thence with the latter road to the Alexandria and Marlborough road, thence with the said road to Palmer's tavern, thence a road to the Marlborough and Piscataway road, to a road leading to Piscataway branch, thence with Piscataway branch to the place of beginning. Boundaries.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the place of holding election for said district, shall be Surratt's hotel in said district. Place of holding election.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the inhabitants of said district shall be in all respects entitled to all the rights, liberties and privileges held or to be held, and enjoyed by the other election districts in said county. Rights.