

bring the comptroller's report, six hundred dollars; to the expense of distributing bound copies of the Maryland reports, to the clerks and registers of wills of this State, fifty dollars; to the executive for the contingent fund, provided in the constitution, to be placed at his disposal, six thousand dollars; to the contingent fund for the library, including the expense for binding books, of lights, portorage and freights, of stationery, of menial service and assistance, of advertising and printing, and of all other incidental expenses, one thousand three hundred dollars; to special judges, appointed in pursuance of the twenty-second section of the fourth article of the constitution, three thousand five hundred dollars; to the contingent expenses of the treasury department, one thousand dollars; to the printing of blank licenses for the comptroller, eight hundred dollars; to the payment of the interest on the public debt of this State, that is to say, the interest falling due quarterly on the currency debt of the State, four hundred and ten thousand two hundred and fifty dollars; and to the interest on the public debt falling due semi-annually, and payable in London, including costs of exchange, remittances and commissions, two hundred and sixty-seven thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars; Provided, however, Provisoes. that all that portion of the interest on the public debt which at any time during the year ending on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, shall be due on that part of said debt, which may constitute the sinking fund of the State, shall be applied by the treasurer to the purchase of stock or bonds of the State for the increase of the said funds, to the payment of the interest falling due on the first day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and on the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, on the bonds or certificates of debt of the Annapolis and Elkridge Rail Road Company, issued in pursuance of chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, of eighteen hundred and forty-one, and to the payment of so much of the principal of said bonds or certificates of debt as is directed to be paid by the said act, seven thousand dollars; Provided however, that only so much thereof shall be applied as may be equal to the net profits of said Annapolis and Elkridge Rail Road Company, and the profits which both this State shall or may have derived from the use of the Annapolis and Elkridge Rail Road in connection with the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and which said profits shall or may have been paid into the treasury, as required by the aforesaid act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred