

and perform all services, and receive the same compensation therefor, as if he had not removed from said county, and it shall not be necessary to issue new writs of execution, or duplicates of such writs as now are or may be in his hands, to his successor in office, as provided in the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty, unless he shall fail to attend to the execution and return of said process in person or by some competent deputy, but when it shall appear by the return of the said James E. Douglass, on any of the said writs now or that may hereafter be in his hands, that the property levied on by him by virtue of said writs, is or may be on hand for want of bidders, and it shall be deemed necessary by the plaintiff or his counsel, to issue writs of venditioni exponas, or have those already issued, or that may be issued, renewed, the circuit court for said county may, and shall direct them to the said James E. Douglass, as if he had continued to reside in said county.

Appointment of deputy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in the event of the removal of the said James E. Douglass, from said county, in order to enjoy the benefit of the provisions of this act, he shall first appoint, and thereafter continue to keep until his business aforesaid has been closed, a competent deputy, who shall reside in the town of Cambridge, and he shall give notice in all the newspapers published in said county of such appointment.

Act of 1823,
ch. 180, not to
apply to said Douglass.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That so much of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty, as requires that new writs of execution, or duplicates of such writs shall be issued, in the event of the removal of any sheriff from the county for which he shall be elected sheriff, and directed to his successor, and that provides that the said sheriff so removing shall not be entitled to any fees on the executions in his hands unclosed, shall not apply to the case of the said James E. Douglass.

In force.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.