

Power to sell rights.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the trustees shall have power to create and sell rights, perpetual or for a term of years, of having pupils taught in the seminary free of charge; which rights are usually called scholarships; the evidence of a right of a scholarship shall be such as the trustees may prescribe, and may be transferable by assignment, in such manner as the trustees may prescribe.

Disposal of stock.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That any individual wishing to dispose of his or her stock or one or more scholarships, shall first offer the same to the board of trustees, and they may purchase the same if they deem it proper to do so, and will pay as much therefor as any other person.

Failure to pay instalment.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That any stockholder failing to pay any instalment on his or her stock within ninety days after it shall become due, shall forfeit the same, and the amounts previously paid shall become the property of the corporation, or he or she may be held liable for such instalment or instalments by suit or otherwise.

CHAPTER 62.

Passed Feb. 24, 1854. AN ACT to authorise the courts of this State to admit Andrew P. Ward to practice law therein.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Andrew P. Ward, a resident of this State, represents that, being an alien, he has made declaration of an intention to become a citizen of the United States, conformably to the act of Congress in such case provided, and has petitioned that he may be admitted to practice law in this State, notwithstanding he has not yet become such citizen.

Authority to admit.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the several courts of the State of Maryland are hereby authorised to admit Andrew P. Ward to practice the profession of law, although not yet a citizen of the United States, if deemed by said courts otherwise qualified.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.
