

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall extend to, and embrace all decrees and decretal orders, passed by said court on the equity side thereof. Provisions of act—what to embrace.

CHAPTER 65.

AN ACT to amend an act to incorporate the Knoxville and Middletown Road company, passed January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-three. Passed Feb. 24, 1854

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That when one-tenth or more of the stock of the said road shall have been subscribed in the manner in said original act provided for, the said commissioners or a majority of them in said act appointed, shall proceed to organize the said company in the manner in the fourth section of said original act set forth and specified. Organization.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the road, the construction of which is provided for in the eleventh section of the said original act, shall not be less than fifty, nor more than sixty feet in width, between fences; and the said company shall, if they think proper, cause said ground to be so graded, that they may have on one side a country or summer road, and on the other side an artificial road of stone or gravel or plank, in the manner and form in said eleventh section set forth and specified. Width of road.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said company by its president and managers, have perfected the said road in compliance with the original act, for any distance from its southern terminus, not less than two miles, and so on from time to time, any other like distance progressing, they shall proceed to give notice to the Governor to erect their toll-gates according to the direction in the thirteenth section of said original act particularly specified. Erection of toll gates.