C H A P. X.

An ACT for the payment of the journal of accounts.

WHEREAS it appears by the journal of accounts of this session, that there is now due from this state the sum of one thousand and eighty-seven pounds four shillings and eight-pence current money;

Treasurer to pay claims,
&c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the western shore shall and is hereby authorised and required to pay the several persons, their executors, administrators, assigns or orders, or to such of them as shall offer to receive the same, the several sums of current money allowed to them respectively, as they appear to be settled and ascertained by the said journal of accounts, out of any money now in the treasury, or that shall come into the treasury, subject to the appropriation of the general assembly.

RESOLUTIONS assented to April Session, 1792.

WHEREAS major John Davidson, of the city of Annapolis, purchased of this state a tract of land in Frederick county, for the sum of thirteen hundred pounds, and paid a considerable sum into the treasury in part discharge of the said purchase money: And whereas the said John Davidson did, in the year 1785, file his bill in chancery, to be released from the said purchase, and to have restitution of the sum so as aforesaid paid to the public; and on the hearing of the said bill, it was ordered and decreed by the chancellor, that in case the complainant did not elect to take a conveyance for the said land in consideration of the above payment, the complainant's bond should be given up and cancelled, and that he should be entitled to a restitution of the money, certificates, or other thing received from him by the state on account of the said purchase, or the value thereof, with interest from the time of the said decree: And whereas it appears that the said John Davidson hath elected not to take a conveyance of the said land on the terms aforesaid, and it is just and reasonable that the decree aforesaid should be carried into effect; RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and required to pay to the said John Davidson all money or certificates paid by the said John Davidson to the state for or on account of the purchase aforesaid, or the value thereof at the time of signing the said decree, together with an interest of six per cent. thereon from the time of signing the said decree; and that the bond of the said John Davidson be delivered up agreeably to the said decree.
