

an's and now Hunter's; from thence passing by Michael Gaul's mill to the old York road, near Foster's meeting house, and from thence to the Baltimore and York town turnpike road.

1812.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, as requires a road to be laid out in a direction from Vaughan's Mine run and Gun-powder mills to the Owlbranch be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of original act repealed.

CHAPTER 128.

An additional supplement, to a supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the Militia of this State. Passed Dec. 25, 1812.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That to each regiment of cavalry within this State, there shall be a staff, to consist of one adjutant, one quarter-master, one paymaster, one surgeon, and one surgeon's mate, and one veterinary surgeon; and the Governor and Council are hereby authorised and directed, to appoint the said staff or any part thereof, upon the lieutenant-colonels or commanding officers of any regiment or regiments, by, and with the consent of the majority of the officers of said regiment or regiments, making application in writing, and designating the appointment or appointments, and the names of the persons to fill the same in their respective regiments.

Staff to be appointed by the governor and council.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of each lieutenant-colonel or commanding officer of any regiment of cavalry, under the penalty of fifty dollars for each neglect, to call together or cause to be called together, by any officer or other person they may order so to do within their respective districts, the commissioned and non-commissioned officers, four times a year for drill exercise.

Drill exercise.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each regiment shall meet in the month of May in every spring, and in the month of October in every fall, at such convenient place as the lieutenant-colonel or commander thereof may direct; and each squadron shall meet once every spring in the month of April, and once in the month of September in every fall within the county in which such squadron may belong, at such convenient place as the major or commanding officer may direct; and each troop shall meet at least four times in a year independant of the Meetings