CHAPTER 145.

Passed Dec. 28, 1812. A further additional supplement to the act entitled, An act to provide for the organization and regulation of the courts of common law in this State, and for the administration of justice therein.

Scire facias. SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases of scire facias against heirs and ter-tenants, which have been issued, or which shall or may be issued out of any county court of this State, when any one or more of the heirs or ter-tenants named and included in such writ of scire facias, or to whom the same was intended to be made known, shall be resident in any other county than that in which the judgment upon which such scire facias shall have been issued or may be issued, was obtained, it shall and may be lawful for the clerk of the county court who shall have issued or may issue the said scire facias, to issue and direct to the sheriff of each and every other county wherein any of the said heirs or ter-tenants shall or may reside, a duplicate of the said writ of scire facias, returnable to the county court in which the said judgment was obtained; and it shall be the duty of such sheriff to serve the said scire facias, and return it to the county court, whence the same shall have issued, according to the tenor and command thereof; and the parties so summoned by means of the said duplicate, may appear thereto, and the like proceedings shall be had against them in the said county court, in the same manner as if they were residents of the county in which the said judgment was obtained.

Court of Appeals. 2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in all cases of scire facias against heirs or terre-tenants, which shall or may be issued out of the Court of Appeals of either shore, on any judgment which hath been or may be rendered therein, or which hath been rendered in the late General Court, when any one or more
