

1812.
constitute
them.

Medicine of Maryland, and their successors, shall constitute the Faculty of Physic; that the professor of theology, together with six ordained ministers of any religious society or denomination, and their successors, shall form and constitute the Faculty of Divinity; that the professor of law, together with six qualified members of the bar, and their successors, shall form and constitute the Faculty of Law; and that the professors of the arts and sciences, together with three of the principals of any three academies or colleges of this State and their successors, shall form and constitute the Faculty of the Arts and Sciences.

Meetings of regents.

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said regents and their successors, shall meet at least once a year, in stated annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances they may direct, in order to examine into all matters touching the discipline of the institution, and the good and wholesome execution of their laws; and that the said regents, when duly assembled, shall have full power and authority to make their own rules of proceeding, and to make fundamental regulations for the government and discipline of the University, in all which meetings a majority of the whole number of regents shall be a quorum to do any business, except to vacate the seat of the provost of said University, or of any of the professors or lecturers, for which purpose the consent of three-fourths of the whole number of the regents shall be necessary, and then only on a formal impeachment.

Faculty of physic shall hold one term
annually—its duration—lectures.

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the faculty of physic of the said University, shall hold one term in each and every year, which shall commence on the third Monday in October in each year, and shall continue not less than four nor more than six months, as may be regulated by the ordinances of the University, within which period all the lectures to be delivered by said faculty shall be given, except the lectures on botany, and such other lectures as the regents shall deem most proper to be delivered at a different season.

Commence-
ments.

13. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in order to animate and encourage the students of the said University to a laudable diligence, industry and progress in the professions and sciences taught therein, the said regents and their successors, shall, by a written mandate under their privy seal, and the hand of their provost, have full power and authority to direct the