

Bridge, and also a branch of said road leading to the upper end of William Franklin's plantation, shall be, and the same is hereby confirmed as a public road, as it now runs, twenty feet in width, and shall be considered a public road, and kept up as such, in the same manner that other public roads are kept in said county.

1812.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That John I. Williams and Belitha Griffin* be, and they are hereby permitted to turn said road agreeably to an order obtained by them from Worcester county court for that purpose: Provided, The said court shall receive and confirm their return of the same.

J. I. Williams or B. Griffin may turn said road agreeably to a certain order. Proviso.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said county court are hereby empowered to confirm or reject the return of said John I. Williams and Belitha Griffin, in the same manner that the said court could or might do, had the same been a public road at the time of granting the said order.

Discretionary power of county court.

CHAPTER 43.

An act to correct a mistake in a Deed therein mentioned.

Passed Dec. 5, 1812.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, that Conrad Kerlinger, senr. late of Baltimore county, deceased, did execute and acknowledge a deed of conveyance to Conrad Kerlinger, junr. for two hundred acres of land, being parts of two tracts of land called Mattagin and Stoney Point, lying and being in the county aforesaid; in which deed it appears there was a mistake made in omitting to insert the second line of the said land, and in stating that the third line of the said land, ran south sixty-two degrees east, instead of south fifty-two degrees east; and it appearing reasonable that the mistake in the said deed should be corrected; Therefore,

Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the purpose of correcting the said mistake, the following shall be the lines of the parts of the two tracts of land called Mattagin and Stoney Point, and conveyed by Conrad Kerlinger, senr. deceased, to Conrad Kerlinger, junr. by deed bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, to wit: Begin-

Mistake corrected—how.

* NOTE BY THE PRINTER.—In the engrossed bill I find this name written Belitha Griffith, instead of "Griffin," but it is in all probability a mistake of the transcriber.
