

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, before they shall proceed to act, shall take an oath before some justice of the peace, that they will, without favor or affection, prejudice or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons through whose lands the said road may pass, by reason of opening the same.

1812.

Commissioners shall take an oath.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That no person or persons, through whose land the said road shall pass, and who have agreed or signed the petition for the same, shall be entitled to any damages by this act.

Damages— who shall not be entitled.

CHAPTER 52.

A further additional supplement to an act entitled, An act for opening a certain road in Baltimore county, therein mentioned.

Passed Dec. 7, 1812.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, that the commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a further additional supplement, to lay out a road from the end of the Falls turnpike to Benjamin Price's shop, from thence in a direction as near as convenient to Black Rock mills, to intersect the main road near George Carlenger's mill, have laid out that part of said road leading from Benjamin Price's shop to Darby Ensor's mill-race, above Black Rock mills, to the great injury of the land-holders, and contrary to the intention of the law, and praying that other commissioners may be appointed to lay out that part of said road: Therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles Cockey, Michael Armocort, Jacob Singery, James Mason and Thomas Price, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners of review, and they or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and directed to review that part of said road as located by the commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a further additional supplement, from Benjamin Price's shop to Darby Ensor's mill-race, above Black Rock mills; and they are also hereby authorised and directed to view the ground from Benjamin Price's shop aforesaid to Ensor's ford, from thence to the intersection of the roads at Davis' tavern, and from thence to Darby Ensor's mill-race, above Black Rock mills.

Commissioners of review— their duty.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners of review or a majority of them, be,

Commissioners of review
