

1812.

Under whose direction.

Money shall be paid over—under whose direction—to whom.

Surplus money.

pointed to contract for and superintend the building of the same, shall appear most adviseable,) for the reception and safe keeping of the criminals in said county.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said room shall be erected and completed as soon as may be, under the direction of John Moores, William Wilson and Henry Dorsey, of Harford county aforesaid, who are hereby authorised to contract with a person or persons to erect and complete the same.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the money directed to be assessed and levied as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the collector or collectors who shall collect the same, under the order of the aforesaid John Moores, William Wilson and Henry Dorsey, or a majority of them, to the person or persons who shall be employed by them to erect and complete the room aforesaid.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the erection and completion of the room aforesaid, shall not require the whole money so assessed and levied as aforesaid, the balance remaining in the hands of the collector or collectors as aforesaid, shall be paid over by him or them to the levy court of Harford county, for the use of said county.

CHAPTER 68.

Passed Dec. 15, 1812.

Preamble.

A further additional supplement to an act entitled An act to direct descents.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to this General Assembly, that in a certain case wherein commissioners had been appointed according to the act to direct descents, to divide or otherwise to value the lands and tenements of a deceased intestate, all the commissioners so appointed have died before they had completed the trust and powers committed to them, and no authority appears to be given to the respective courts in such events to appoint other commissioners to complete what may remain to be done by virtue of the commission issued in such cases, or of their order in pursuance thereof; and as the like event may have happened in other instances, and may happen in future, and it is just and reasonable that proceedings under the said act lawfully begun should be duly completed for the benefit and security of the respective parties interested: Therefore,

Commissioners first appointed dying

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any case wherein the commissioners appointed by the court of chancery