

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or the major part of them, shall meet together at such public place within the limits of the said town, as shall be previously notified, on the first Monday in every third month thereafter, and as much oftener by adjournment, as they shall judge to be necessary; and when so assembled, the said commissioners, or the major part of them, shall proceed to execute the several powers and authorities vested in them by this act, from time to time as occasion may require.

1812.

 Meetings.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall be, and they are hereby authorised, empowered and required to meet as aforesaid, and from time to time to recommend such plans and regulations as they shall judge necessary for the removal of nuisances which now exist, or which may hereafter be erected in said town for the prevention of geese and swine from going at large in said town; and to recommend such plans and regulations as will advance the health, convenience and cleanliness of the inhabitants thereof, and to adopt the same (provided a majority of the persons entitled to vote for commissioners at a meeting to be called, shall agree thereto;) to cause to be removed all nuisances and obstructions that may interrupt the passage of the said inhabitants or others, in the streets, lanes and alleys of the said town; to cause the principal or other streets to be repaired and improved whenever a majority of the said inhabitants shall reasonably require the same to be done, and sufficient sums of money can be raised, by subscription or otherwise, for this salutary purpose; to cause the inhabitants and others entitled to vote for commissioners according to this act, to be and continue registered, and to make such alterations in the register thereof from time to time, as the increasing number of inhabitants or other changing circumstances shall render necessary; to appoint and qualify a clerk, whose duty it shall be to keep fair and faithful minutes of their proceedings in proper and well bound books to be provided by them for that purpose, and to be subject to the inspection and examination of the inhabitants of the said town, and all persons who may be concerned; to cause the persons entitled to vote as aforesaid to be summoned by public advertisement to meet at some certain time and place within the limits of the said town, whenever their sentiments may be requisite upon any extraordinary occasion; to cause a just and fair assessment and valuation of all the prop-

Nuisances,
 &c.—general powers of the commissioners.
