CHAPTER 57

(Senate Bill 100)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 8(c) (7) of Article 95A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Unemployment Insurance Law", sub-title "Contributions", relating to certain conditions under which benefits are charged to the experience rating account of employers in the unemployment insurance laws.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 8(c) (7) of Article 95A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Unemployment Insurance Law", sub-title "Contributions", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(c) (7) For the purposes of the experience rating provisions of this sub-section, in any case where a claim for benefits is filed, an employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid, [and shall not be credited with base period wages on which such benefits were or would have been based,] for the purposes of any computation made for any fiscal year beginning after the date of separation from employment, if such individual left the service of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to his employer; or if such individual left or was suspended from the service of the employer by reason of any circumstances under which he was disqualified for benefits under the provisions of Section 6 of this article, or under which he could have been so disqualified had he filed claim during the period for which such disqualification would have been effective.

In the event that it is determined by the Executive Director that an individual has received benefits which are recoverable by the Executive Director under the terms of Sections 17(d) or 17(e) of this article, the benefits so received shall not, for the purposes of the experience rating provisions of this sub-section, be charged against the account of any employer in any computation made for any fiscal year commencing after the date of the determination by the Executive Director, provided no benefit charges shall be removed from the employer's account if the payment of such benefits was
