No. 22

(House Joint Resolution 30)

Joint Resolution creating a permanent committee to be appointed by the Governor for the regulation and study of migratory labor in Maryland.

WHEREAS, In past years, seasonal farm labor has become a major factor in Maryland, and the increase in farm production has necessitated the importation in increasing numbers of out-of-state workers from the southern states and from Puerto Rico, where the labor supply is better suited for this type of arduous stoop labor than is the local labor supply; and

WHEREAS, Many problems involving local and community action arise pertaining to this migratory labor force; and some of these problems include the recruitment of workers from distant points, transportation, housing, health and sanitation facilities, child care, schooling and community acceptance; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the General Assembly of Maryland that these problems be studied in order to bring all the available facilities of the affected governmental agencies and existing statutes to bear on the vital issues that arise in connection with the use of migratory workers; and
