

within thirty days after such determination, by certiorari, mandamus or by any other method permissible under the rules and practices of said Court, or the laws of this State, and said Court may make such further orders in respect thereto as justice may require.

[b] (d) (Notice to licensees) Whenever the Commission revokes the license of any person, and no appeal to the proper court has been filed within the time specified for such appeals, the Commission shall then mail a written notice of such revocation to all [licensees in the district (Baltimore City or any county) of the State in which the person whose license has been revoked had his or her place of business.] licensed real estate brokers under this sub-title.

(e) Where the license of a non-resident is so suspended or revoked the Commission shall also send written notice, stating the cause for such revocation or suspension, to the Real Estate Commission or Licensing Authority (if any) in the state or district of which such non-resident licensee is a resident. Such notices mailed with the next quarterly directory as required in Section 233 of this sub-title shall be deemed adequate notice to licensees.

233. (a) (Licenses—Directory—Reports) The Commission shall publish annually in pamphlet form the name and business addresses of all licensees under this sub-title and furnish copies of said pamphlet to any person upon request. The Commission shall also publish three supplementary quarterly directories of the names and addresses of all licensees whose names do not appear in the annual or preceding quarterly directory. Copy of these directories together with copy of any rules or regulations adopted by the Commission and any educational material approved by the Commission shall be mailed to all licensees and be made available to any other person on request.

(b) (Annual Reports) The Commission shall publish an annual report of its activities which shall include statements of its total receipts from license fees, total expenditures, number of licenses issued to (1) brokers, (2) salesmen and (3) associate brokers in Baltimore City and each of the counties, number of hearings held, number of complaints received, number of investigations made, number of licenses (1) refused, (2) suspended or (3) revoked and such other information as may further reflect the work of the Commission. Such annual reports shall be sent to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Delegates of the State of Maryland and be made available to others on request.

238. (Penalties.) Any person acting for himself or herself or for or on behalf of any co-partnership or corporation, not specifically exempted from this provision of this sub-title, who shall after June 1, 1939, engage in the business or act in the capacity of a real estate broker or real estate salesman within this State, without a license or shall carry on or continue such business [or employment] as either real estate broker or salesman after the suspension or revocation of any such license to him or it issued, or shall [employ] retain the services of any person as a real estate salesman to whom a license as a real estate salesman had not been issued, or whose license as such shall have been revoked or suspended shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars (250) or
