

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 33 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Lands Formed by Channel Excavation in Sinepuxent and Chincoteague Bays", be and it is hereby repealed and that a new Section 33 be and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, said new section to stand in the place and stead of the section so repealed, and to read as follows:

33. All islands created, made or formed within the confines of Sinepuxent, Isle of Wight and Chincoteague Bays by the dumping or depositing of excavated material from dredging or other artificial means employed either by the State of Maryland or by the United States, or by either or both, or by any Department or Agency thereof during the construction or maintenance of the Ocean City Inlet and the channel in said bays, as well as all accretion to such islands, past or future, are hereby declared to be natural resources of the State of Maryland and title to the same shall be retained for the use of the Board of Natural Resources and no patent therefore shall hereafter be issued by the Land Commissioner of Maryland. The Board of Natural Resources is hereby authorized and empowered to use said lands for conservation purposes in such manner and under such regulations as in its discretion it may deem for the best interest of the State, subject however, to the approval of the Board of Public Works. Provided, however, that persons who have licenses to hunt or fish in Worcester County shall have the right to hunt or fish, as the case may be, on said lands during the open season for such hunting or fishing. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect past or future accretions to lands under private ownership bounding on, or surrounded by the waters of, Chincoteague, Isle of Wight and Sinepuxent Bays.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1955.

Approved April 25, 1955.
