

ments which may thereafter become necessary; such additional revenue bonds may be sold from time to time in the manner hereinabove provided, and shall be deemed a part of the original issue authorized by such resolution, and shall be issued under such restrictions and limitations as may be prescribed by such resolution or trust indenture; provided, however, that such additional bonds shall rank equally and on a parity with the other bonds authorized thereby.

The Authority is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds then outstanding and issued under the provisions of this Act. The issuance of such revenue refunding bonds, the details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the Authority in respect to the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Such revenue refunding bonds shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from the date or dates of their respective issues.

The Authority is further authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of a single issue of its revenue bonds for the combined purposes of (1) paying the cost of any improvement, extension, enlargement or reconstruction of the market and (2) of refunding its revenue bonds which shall theretofore have been issued for such market and shall then be outstanding and which shall then have matured or be subject to redemption or can be acquired for retirement. Such revenue refunding bonds shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from the date or dates of their respective issues.

SEC. ~~10~~ 9. And be it further enacted:

That all moneys received from any revenue bonds issued and sold under the provisions of this Act shall be applied solely for the purposes for which the bonds shall be authorized or to the sinking fund created for the payment of such bonds, and there shall be and there hereby is created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of such bonds or the trustee hereinafter provided for in respect of such bonds.

SEC. ~~11~~ 10. And be it further enacted:

That in the discretion of the Authority, such revenue bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the Authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside of the State. Such trust indenture may pledge or assign all revenues to be received from any market, but shall not convey or mortgage any market or any part or parts thereof. Either the resolution providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper, not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the Authority in relation to the construction, acquisition, improvement, installation, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the market and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys, and may provide that the market shall be constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers employed or designated by the Authority and satisfactory to the original purchasers of the
