

public highway within any sanitary district shall file with the Commission plans of such work and construction showing the location and depth in such street, road, alley or public highway, of the proposed main, conduit, pole, pipe or other structure, and such construction or work shall not be begun until said plan shall have been approved by the Commission, nor shall any change be made in said approved plan or in the work or construction as shown upon said plan except on further approval of the Commission. Whenever any main, conduit, pole, pipe or other structure is put in without the filing of plans with the Commission and the approval thereof by it, or when any change is made in the location of such main, conduit, pipe, pole or other structure as shown upon the plans approved by the Commission, or any approved change therein, the Commission may, if and when such conduit, main, pipe or pole, or other structure, interferes with the construction of or operation of its water or sewerage system, or other works, remove such conduit, main, pipe, pole or other structures or change the location thereof at the cost and expense of the party so putting them in, or their heirs, assigns or successors, and without any liability upon the part of the Commission for damage that might be done to the same by reason of the Commission's operations in constructing or maintaining its systems or works. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 414 of this sub-title.

414. Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this sub-title, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable by any trial magistrate or the Circuit Court of the county within which such offense is committed, and the offender shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or to confinement for not more than thirty (30) days in the county jail, or both, in the discretion of the magistrate or Circuit Court. Where such act or omission is of a continuing nature and is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this sub-title or any rule or regulation formulated thereunder, a conviction for one offense shall not be a bar to the conviction for a continuation of such offense subsequent to the first or any succeeding conviction.

415. Any land owned by a church, and constituting the premises occupied by such or its parsonage, and used exclusively for public worship or for other religious or customary purposes of a church or parsonage and not for investment, gain or other secular purposes, and any land owned by any private eleemosynary corporation wherein is conducted a school or schools, shall be exempt from the benefit assessments provided for by this sub-title in respect of a frontage of not exceeding 150 feet. The Commission may, in its discretion, exercise in each individual case, grant or withhold a further exemption of the land so owned and used in respect of any frontage thereof in excess of 150 feet hereinbefore provided for.

416. The Commission shall be, and it is hereby authorized to prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of this sub-title.

417. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this sub-title are hereby repealed to the extent of their inconsistency, provided that nothing contained shall be taken as restricting any
