No. 15

(House Joint Resolution 10)

House Joint Resolution providing for a Special Joint Committee to study the operations and problems of the several training schools in this State.

WHEREAS, the members of the General Assembly of Maryland are informed from time to time of serious administrative, personnel and operating problems in the several training schools in this State; and

WHEREAS, among these problems is the need for a definitive statement of the lines of authority as between the Department of Public Welfare and the several Boards of Managers; and

WHEREAS, the uncertainties now existing in the lines of authority may be resulting in overlapping administration and weaknesses in operating details; and

WHEREAS, the members of the General Assembly also are informed of serious personnel problems existing at some or all of these schools, perhaps due to the management and administration of the training schools, resulting in the loss by resignation of trained and competent employees and a marked loss of morale among the remaining employees; and

WHEREAS, the members of the General Assembly believe that every effort should be made to ascertain and correct the administrative, procedural and personnel problems affecting the Barrett School for Girls, the Maryland Training School for Boys, Boys' Village of Maryland and Montrose School for Girls; now therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates of Maryland are authorized and directed to appoint a Special Joint Committee of members of the Senate and House of Delegates to consist of not fewer than five members of each House to conduct an immediate investigation into the administration, operation, procedures and personnel problems of the Maryland Training School for Boys, Barrett School
