CHAPTER 242

(House Bill 414)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 150 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1954 Supplement), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Water Fowl and Migratory Birds", authorizing the use of sneak boats on the Monocacy River in Carroll County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 150 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1954 Supplement), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Water Fowl and Migratory Birds", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and to read as follows:

(a) Methods of hunting. During the open season, wild waterfowl may be taken only with a shotgun which is not larger than ten gauge, which is loaded only with shot and which is fired from the shoulder. Such wild waterfowl may be taken on land or on water and the aid of a dog or dogs or of decoys may be employed. It shall be unlawful to hunt, pursue, or kill any wild waterfowl of any species with or by means of any automatic loading or hand-operated repeating shotgun capable of holding more than three shells, the magazine of which has not been cut off or plugged with a one piece metal or wooden filler incapable of removal through the loading end thereof so as to reduce the capacity of said gun to not more than three shells at any one time in the magazine and chamber combined, unless federal regulations provide otherwise. It shall be unlawful to have a rifle in possession while hunting wild waterfowl. It shall be unlawful to use more than ten live decoys on any one property at any one time. No waterfowl, except crippled birds not otherwise retrievable, shall be shot while resting on water or land. It shall be unlawful to use any airplane, sink box or sink boat, or floating device towed by a power boat or a sail boat for the purpose of hunting wild waterfowl
