SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 362A of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Carroll County", sub-title "Sykesville", said section having been added by Chapter 308 of the Acts of 1931, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

362A. The Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, whenever in their judgment the needs of the town require, to borrow on the faith and credit of the said town of Sykesville, sums [not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifteen thousand dollars,] to be used for the municipal purposes and to secure the same by the notes of the said the Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville, executed on its behalf by the Mayor and attested by the Clerk of the said Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville, at the lowest rate of interest which they may be able to secure. But every resolution passed by the Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville providing for the borrowing of any sums hereby authorized shall set out in particular the purposes for which the money so borrowed is to be used, and said money so borrowed shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever than that which is set out in the resolution providing for the borrowing of the same.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the effectiveness of this Act shall be subject to the requirement of Section 5 of Article 11E of the Constitution of Maryland that no such local law shall become effective in regard to a municipal corporation until and unless it shall have been approved at a regular or special municipal election by a majority of the voters of that municipal corporation voting on the question.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1955.
