

Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County", sub-title "Sunday Observance", as said section was enacted by Chapter 722 of the Acts of 1953, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

507C. Notwithstanding any provision of any Public General or Public Local Law, it shall be lawful to show or exhibit motion pictures in Garrett County on Sundays after the hour of [9] 8 o'clock P. M., and at no other time during such day, with or without a charge or admission fee, provided, however, that such exhibitions shall be subject to all provisions of law relating to licensing and censorship applicable to motion picture exhibitions on week days. The work or employment of any operator, ticket-seller or other employee or attendant in connection with such exhibition shall not be unlawful because performed on Sunday.

Any such exhibition on Sunday except as hereby authorized shall be subject to the provisions and penalties of Sections 578 and 605 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1955.
