

insert his or her name on said license in ink at the time of purchase. And no license shall be issued to any person under fourteen years of age except upon the written request of the parent or guardian. Such license shall not be transferable, and if used or presented by any person other than the person to whom it was issued, such license shall be confiscated by the Director, any [deputy] game warden, constable, or other officer, who shall find such license being used; provided, a permanent resident of government reservations shall be entitled to procure a resident hunter's license. It shall be unlawful to procure a license under an assumed name or in which an address other than the applicant's legal place of residence is given or to make any false statement whatsoever in securing a license.

126. (License Tag Must Be Displayed.) Every license so issued shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to hunt game which is protected by law and for non-residents to hunt wild birds and wild animals, in addition to the aforementioned game birds and game animals and fur-bearing animals in any county within the State at any time during the lawful open season, provided that every licensee while hunting as aforesaid shall have upon his person the license referred to above and shall also display a tag bearing his license number in figures at least one inch in height fastened upon his outer garment at the center of its back and between the shoulders in such manner that the figures are visible at all times while thus hunting. The license must be produced for the inspection of the Director, [deputy] game wardens, sheriffs, constables, or other officers or any landowner or tenant demanding to see it.

129. (Penalties.) Any [person] resident found guilty of hunting any game protected by law without having first procured a license, except as herein provided, or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the Director or any [Deputy] Game Warden, Sheriff, Constable, or other officer, or person, or failing to display the license number on his back as provided by law, or procuring a license under an assumed name, illegal address or making a false statement, or violating any of the other provisions of this sub-heading, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any Justice of the Peace of the County or City where the offense was committed, shall be fined Twenty Dollars ($20.00) for each and every offense and shall stand committed to the county jail or the Baltimore City Jail until such fine and costs are paid but such imprisonment shall not exceed twenty days for each offense. Any person convicted for hunting without proper license and tag in possession while hunting, or using any other person's license or tag, said license and tag shall be confiscated and the person upon whom it was found and the licensee shall be disqualified from procuring a hunter's license for a period of one year.

Any non-resident of the State of Maryland found guilty of hunting any game protected by law or wild birds or wild animals without having first procured a hunting license, or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the Director or any Game Warden, Sheriff, Constable or other officer or person, for failing to display the license tag on his back as provided by law, or procuring a license under an assumed name, illegal address or making false statement, or violating any of the other provisions of this sub-heading, shall be deemed guilty
