

cludes, but is not limited to, air line company, canal company, car company, express company, freight company, freight line company, motor vehicle company (including automobile company, motor bus company and trucking company), power boat company (including vessel-boat company and steamboat company and ferry company), railroad company, street railroad company, sleeping car company, taxicab company, toll bridge company, towing and lightering company, and transit company.

(e) (Company.)

"Company", as a designation for a type of enterprise, such as "public service company" or "electric company" means and includes any person owning such enterprise, whether in his own right or as agent, trustee, or receiver.

(f) (Electric Company.)

"Electric Company" means and includes any public service company, other than a company generating and/or transmitting electricity exclusively for its own use, (1) which (a) owns any electric plant and (b) transmits, sells, or distributes electricity, or generates electricity for distribution or sale; or (2) any such company which is authorized to erect, lay down or maintain wires, pipes, conduits, ducts or other fixtures in, over, or under streets for furnishing or distributing electricity, or to maintain underground conduits or ducts for electrical conductors; or (3) every municipal corporation in the business of supplying electricity for other than municipal purposes.

(g) (Electric Plant.)

"Electric Plant" means plant owned by an electric company and includes but is not limited to batteries, boilers, buildings, cables, conduits, converters, dams, ducts (or other devices for containing or carrying electrical conductors), dynamos, easements, lamps, meters, motors, poles, power stations, real estate, services, transformers, water falls, water plant and water property.

(h) (Gas Company.)

"Gas Company" means and includes (1) any public service company authorized to erect, lay down or maintain pipes, conduits, ducts or other fixtures in, over, or under streets for furnishing or distributing gas; and (2) any public service company which (a) owns any gas plant, and (b) transmits, sells, supplies, or distributes artificial or natural gas, or manufactures gas for distribution or sale; and (3) every municipal corporation in the business of supplying gas for other than municipal purposes.

(i) (Gas Plant.)

"Gas Plant" means plant owned by a gas company and includes but is not limited to boilers, buildings, condensers, easements, extensions, holders, lamps, mains, meters, pipes, pipe galleries, purifiers, retorts, real estate, scrubbers, services, and water gas sets.

(j) (Own.)

"Own" means own, operate, lease to, lease from, manage, or control.