

(b) File with the commission an annual report for the preceding calendar year; and such special reports, information, contracts and records or copies thereof as the commission may direct. The commission may require that documents filed under this section be under oath.

(c) Furnish instrumentalities, utilities, services, and facilities which are safe, adequate, just, and reasonable.

(d) Charge just and reasonable rates, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, for the utility services rendered by it.

(e) Give notice to the commission within 30 days, or such time as the commission may prescribe, of any accident in which the company is involved, which results in personal injury, property damage, or loss of life. Such notice shall be in the form prescribed by the commission, and shall not be admissible in evidence, or used for any purpose against the company giving it, in any action for damages arising out of any matter mentioned in the notice.

(f) Comply fully with all the requirements of this article and refrain from violating any of the provisions of this article.

Carrier Companies

In General

28. (Interchange of Passengers and Freight.)

Every common carrier company shall afford reasonable, proper, and equal facilities for the prompt interchange and transfer of passengers, and the prompt receipt and forwarding of property and freight, between its lines and the lines of every other common carrier company. No common carrier company shall discriminate, as between other common carrier companies, in transferring, receiving or forwarding passengers, property or freight to or from such other common carrier companies. No common carrier company, however, shall be obliged to allow any other common carrier company to use its tracks or terminal facilities.

29. (Long and Short Haul.)

Unless the commission orders otherwise, no common carrier company shall charge or receive an equal or greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of a like kind of property under substantially similar circumstances for a shorter distance than for a longer distance over the same line and in the same direction which includes the shorter.

30. (Tariff Schedules.)

(a) The form of tariff schedules which the commission shall prescribe for common carriers shall be as nearly as practicable the same as that required for the particular kind of carrier by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(b) In addition to such other matters and things as the commission may require, the tariff schedules of every common carrier company shall show: (1) all the current rates, fares and charges (including those specified in section 25 (b)) for the transportation of passengers or property and freight within this State, (i) between each point on its route and all other points on every route owned by it, and
