

far as possible the exact condition of the health of the livestock in said counties, and the local boards of health of the several counties shall investigate all reported cases of contagious or infectious diseases of live stock in their respective counties, and if found to be contagious or infectious shall report the same at once to the State Board of Agriculture, and such Board shall have the power to prevent the introduction into this State of animals from other states which they may have reason to believe are affected with a contagious or infectious disease, or have been exposed thereto, and to detain the same at any place for inspection or quarantine in its discretion.

(b) Provided, however, that whenever the establishment, maintenance and enforcement of a quarantine order is deemed to be urgent and necessary for the prompt performance of the duties specified in this section, and the State Board of Agriculture is not then in session, the quarantine order may be established, maintained and enforced by the following officials of the University of Maryland, or a majority of them: (1) the Chairman of the Board of Regents, sitting as the State Board of Agriculture; (2) the Executive Officer of the State Board of Agriculture, who is the President of the University; (3) the Director of the Live Stock Sanitary Service; and (4) the Dean of Agriculture. Such action by these officials, or a majority of them, shall be fully effective and applicable in all respects as the action of the State Board of Agriculture. The Board shall be notified of any such order at its next meeting thereafter and the order shall continue in full effect and applicability until and unless modified or abrogated by the said officials, or a majority of them, or by the State Board of Agriculture.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1956.

Approved March 8, 1956.
