

exceeding the par value thereof, shall be used for the acquisition, by purchase, condemnation or any other legal means, of land or property, or any rights therein, in the City of Baltimore, and constructing and erecting on said land or property, or on any land or property now or hereafter owned by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, new school buildings, athletic and other auxiliary facilities, and for additions and improvements to, or the modernization or reconstruction of, existing school buildings or facilities, and for equipment for any and all new facilities authorized to be constructed or erected by the provisions hereof, and for architectural or engineering services or surveys, and any other activities relating to planning for the purposes above mentioned or relating to planning for future projects of the same general character which may be constructed out of future loans.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may, by ordinance or ordinances, authorize the issuance of said certificates of indebtedness in series maturing at stated periods, and may make payable annually a portion of the principal of said certificates of indebtedness, and any portion or all of said certificates of indebtedness may or may not be registered and said certificates of indebtedness, or any portion thereof, may or may not have interest coupons attached, all as may be provided by or under the authority of said ordinance or ordinances, and said certificates of indebtedness, when issued, shall bear interest at such rate or rates as may be provided by or under the authority of said ordinance or ordinances. If said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series maturing at stated periods, and a portion of the principal is made payable annually, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall annually raise by taxation the amount of money required to meet the interest and the portion of the principal payable in each year. If said certificates of indebtedness are not issued in series, any premiums realized above the par value of the whole amount of said certificates of indebtedness shall constitute a part of the sinking fund created for the purpose of paying the loan herein authorized. If said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series, the net premiums resulting from the sale of the entire loan shall be placed to the credit of any existing sinking funds established for the payment of any loans of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may, by one ordinance, submit the whole of this loan to the legal voters of Baltimore City at one time, or it may, by one or more separate ordinances, submit a part of said loan to the legal voters of said City at different times; and any ordinance or ordinances submitting the whole or any part of this loan to the legal voters of Baltimore City shall provide for the expenditure of the proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and by the municipal agency designated in the annual Ordinances of Estimates of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That in the expenditure of the proceeds of sale of said certificates of indebtedness, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall observe the following conditions:

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the Charter of Baltimore City
