The taxes so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected in said County.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 26, 1956.

CHAPTER 12

(House Bill 11)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 92A and 92B of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1955 Supplement), title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrates System", relating to the People's Court of Montgomery County and to the jurisdiction, work and removal of the judges thereof, and to the powers of certain other Justices of the Peace of Montgomery County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 92A and 92B of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1955 Supplement), title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrates System", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

92A. Judges of People's Court of Montgomery County.—Appointment; qualifications; terms; vacancies; practice of law; removal.

(a) As of June 15, 1955, the County Council for Montgomery County shall appoint three judges of the people's court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications provided in this article and who shall serve until the first day of May in the year 1963 or until their successors are appointed and qualified. As of the first day of May, 1963, and as of the first day of May in every eighth year thereafter, the county council of Montgomery County shall appoint three judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the positions then expiring. One of such judges shall be designated as the People's Court judge for juvenile causes; one of the judges of the People's Court handling criminal, civil, and
