ADOPTION OF SENATE RULES

By Senator Turnbull:

Ordered by Senator Turnbull that the Rules of the Senate as adopted for the Regular Session of 1956 be and the same are hereby adopted for the Senate for the Special Session beginning on Thursday, March 8, 1956.

AMENDMENT TO SENATE RULES

Ordered, by the Senate of Maryland that Rule No. 90 as adopted for the Special Session beginning on March 8, 1956, be and the same is hereby suspended for the duration of said Special Session; and be it further

Ordered, that a new rule be and the same is hereby added to the Rules of the Senate as adopted for the Special Session beginning March 8, 1956, to be known as Rule No. 93 and to read as follows:

93. Every bill introduced into the Senate during the Special Session beginning on March 8, 1956, shall be referred to the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee shall not report to the floor of the Senate any bill except those falling within one of the following categories: (1) bills recommended to the General Assembly by the Governor of Maryland; (2) bills appropriating funds for the expenses of this Special Session; and (3) bills involving local bond issues. This rule shall not be suspended except by unanimous consent of all senators present; and be it further Ordered, that said Rule No. 93 shall be effective only for the duration of the Special Session beginning on March 8, 1956, and with no further action required of the Senate shall be abrogated and null and void at the end of said Special Session.
