SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of enabling the said Company to transport the produce of its mines and manufactories to market, it shall have and is hereby vested with full right and authority to make, construct, and use such railways as may be necessary to establish connexions between its mines and manufactories and the railways of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, and of the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company; Provided, such connexions be formed subject to the respective rights and privileges of these companies and in pursuance of the mode prescribed in their respective charters. And that for the purpose of better enabling the said Preston Coal and Iron Company of the State of Virginia to make such connecting railways it is hereby invested with full power and authority to take and condemn land or other property to be used for such connecting railways in the manner and subject to the same limitations in respect to the width of road and the rates of toll as are prescribed in the act incorporating the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for the purposes of this act, the said Company shall be and is hereby authorized to raise or borrow money and to issue its bonds for the same bearing interest at the legal rate; the principal and interest to be payable at such times respectively as may be therein prescribed, provided that none of said bonds shall be for a less denomination than one hundred dollars, and that the aggregate of said Bonds outstanding at one time shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars; and that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorise the said Company to make and issue bank notes, scrip or other device intended for circulation as a currency.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act may be altered, amended or repealed from time to time at the pleasure of the Legislature.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
