Arrears
of interest.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all the arrears of interest accruing upon the bonds to be delivered as aforesaid to the said rail road company, prior to the date when said rail road company shall become entitled to the delivery thereof, and also all the arrears of interest accruing upon the bonds, which may be sold or negotiated by the said board of trustees, as authorized by this act, prior to the date of sale or the giving the same in pledge, shall be released by proper acquittances to be given to the said city of Cumberland, unless the said city of Cumberland, shall by an ordinance on the subject to be passed and published, waive its right to such release and acquittances.

Assent.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That before any thing be done under this act, the said rail road company and the said city of Cumberland, shall show their assent to the same, the former by a resolution to be adopted at any authorized meeting of the stockholders, held for the transaction of business, and the latter, by an ordinance for that purpose, to be passed at any meeting of the corporation of which said resolution and city ordinance, copies duly attested by the proper officers of said corporate bodies respectively, shall be filed with the Secretary of State; and that thereupon the said corporate bodies, shall have power and authority to do any matter or thing within the purview of this act, as fully as though such power and authority had been specially conferred by the original acts incorporating the parties.

In force.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day it may be passed.
