CHAPTER 219.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act entitled, an act for Passed Mar. 10, 1856. founding a College at Chestertown.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in addition to the sum now annually paid to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, there shall be paid to said Visitors and Governors annually, the further sum of one thousand dollars, as compensation for the boarding of one student from each of the counties on the Eastern Shore as required by resolution number thirty one, of eighteen hundred and forty seven, which sum shall be paid out of any unappropriated money in the treasury. To be paid annually to the college.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any youth hereafter sent to said college by virtue of an order of any orphans' court, shall be examined by the faculty of said college, both in respect to his moral and intellectual character, and such examination may be repeated whenever the said Visitors shall so require, and a like examination may also be had from time to time of those who are now students in said college by virtue of any such order, and if upon such examination the said Faculty shall find and certify to the Visitors, that in their opinion such youth or student from any cause, moral or intellectual, is not likely so to profit by a course of instruction as to become an intelligent, useful and exemplary member of society, then it shall be Faculty to examine.
