Duty of the several orphans' courts.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several orphans' courts when called upon to execute the duties imposed by the above mentioned resolution, to cause to be brought before them the youths who are offered as candidates for appointment, and to examine personally into their fitness, moral and intellectual, taking care to select only such as appear capable of learning effectually, the branches to be taught during the college course, and to do credit to the Institution.

When to take effect.

SEC. 4. Be it enacted, That this act shall go into force so soon as the said Visitors and Governors shall certify, under the hand of their presiding officer and the seal of the corporation to the Secretary of State, that this act has been accepted by them.

CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT, making an appropriation of money to defray the expense of the surveys necessary, under the acts passed January session, 1852, chapters 60 and 275, authorizing the running and marking of the State boundary lines therein mentioned.

Passed Mar. 10, 1856.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the acts passed January session, 1852, chapter sixty, and chapter two hundred and seventy-five, the former entitled "an act to provide for running and marking that portion of the boundary line between the States of Maryland and Virginia, extending from Smith's Point, at the mouth of the Potomac river, to the Atlantic ocean," and the latter, entitled "an act for running and marking the western boundary line of this State," the Governor of this State was authorised to open a correspondence with the Governor of Virginia, in order to procure the concurrence of action and consent necessary on the part of that State to ac-
