CHAPTER 226.

Passed Mar. 10, 1856.

AN ACT to authorise and empower Joseph Phelps to build a wharf in Elk Neck, Cecil county.

Authorised to build wharf.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph Phelps, of Cecil county, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to build upon his shore in Elk Neck, in said county, a commodious wharf, and when completed to demand and collect the usual wharfage fees from all vessels, steamers or boats, lying at the same, provided that in erection thereof, no impediment or obstruction is made to the navigation by vessels of Elk river.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 227.

Passed Mar. 10, 1856.

AN ACT to establish a new election district in Cecil county.

New election district.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the greater convenience of voting in Cecil county, a new election district be created out of parts of election districts numbers four, five and six, of said county.

Boundaries.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the boundaries of said district shall be as follows: Beginning for the same at the Pennsylvania line where it intersects the public road near John Donohoo's, thence south by said road to its intersection with the road from Rising Sun to Brick Meeting House, thence south by said road until it intersects the road from Brickley's Cross Roads to Brick Meeting House, thence east by said road until it intersects North East Creek, thence south by said creek to the bridge on the road from Shalamiah to Nowland's corner, thence east by said road to the road leading from Elkton to the Pennsylvania line, thence by said road to the Pennsylvania line near McDonnelly's, thence west by said line to the place of beginning.

46