

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all that portion hereby laid off from the fourth and sixth districts shall constitute the ninth election district, and the polls shall be held at the village of Brick Meeting House. Place of holding elections.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of Cecil county shall give notice of the place of holding the election in said district, causing the same to be inserted in two newspapers printed in Cecil county once a week for at least one month previous to holding the election in November, eighteen hundred and fifty six. Sheriff to give notice

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the inhabitants of the said ninth election district shall be entitled to elect one road supervisor, two justices of the peace, two constables, and in all respects be entitled to all the rights, liberties and privileges, held or to be held and enjoyed by the other election districts in said county. Entitled to elect.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the first day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty six. To take effect.

CHAPTER 228.

AN ACT authorising the County Commissioners of Cecil county, in their discretion, to levy a sum of money for the construction of a new bridge over Back creek, in said county. Passed March 10, 1856.

WHEREAS, It is represented to the General Assembly of Maryland, by petition, and otherwise, that the bridge across Back creek, in Cecil county, has fallen into decay, thereby rendering travel unsafe, and otherwise detrimental to the interest of the community, from its obstructing the navigation of a navigable stream, and that from the increased travel and improvements which have taken place in its vicinity, the flourishing village of Chesapeake city having sprung up on either side of the creek, the wants of the community require and demand a bridge of a more enlarged and substantial character ; therefore, Preamble.