

county, also paid one hundred and three dollars and thirteen cents; J. Frisby Gordon, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, also paid two hundred and thirty-five dollars and seventy-six cents; H. H. Mitchell, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county, also paid three hundred and sixty-one dollars and ninety-eight cents; James H. Jamar, Register of Wills for Cecil county, also paid one hundred and eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents; Timothy A. Smith, Register of Wills for Charles county, also paid one hundred and fifty dollars, John Palmer, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Ann's county, also paid two hundred and thirty-nine dollars and seventeen cents; Joseph Stuart, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles county, also paid two hundred and sixty-two dollars and fifty cents; C. W. Billingslea, Register of Wills for Harford county, also paid one hundred and eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents; A. Lingan Jarrett, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford county, also paid three hundred and fifty-seven dollars and eighteen cents; James Wason, Register of Wills for Washington county, also paid two hundred and fifty dollars; Isaac Nesbitt, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county, also paid two hundred dollars; and Benjamin E. Gantt, Register of Wills for Anne Arundel county, also paid the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars; for and on account of said Tax for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-two and part of the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three; and Levin Woolford, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county, also paid three hundred and thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents; and Samuel W. Jones, Register of Wills of the said county, paid the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars; and it also appears to the General Assembly that by the fortieth section of the third article, and the first section of the tenth article of the constitution; it was the intention the framers of that instrument to provide a new mode, and abolish the old method of raising a revenue from said offices; and that the parties aforesaid have under a misapprehension of their duties paid into the treasury the said sums of money, and it being right and just that the same should be refunded to the said parties; therefore,

T. WA

SECT
of Mary
hundred cents be any unap
of the pa
and the t
rant of t ry, the su
Hicks th
lars and f
of one h
B. Gray
Fisher th
thirteen hundred a
to H. H.
sixty-one
Jamar, th
lars and fi
of one h
mer the s
lars and s
of two h
cents; to dred and
Lingan Jar
seven dolla
the sum of Nesbit the
jamin E. G
dollars; to
and thirty-s uel W. Jon
lars.

SEC. 2.

effect from