

or bridges, or unite with an adjoining county to build or repair any bridge or bridges between the said adjoining counties, filed before a contract under this act for building or repairing has been made, that such determination of the said county commissioners is inexpedient, and desire an appeal from such determination, the said county commissioners shall grant such appeal, and cease all further proceedings until the appeal is decided by the circuit court of the county; and shall immediately cause to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court, all records, acts, papers and proceedings, or copies thereof, which may by the appellant be required, with full opportunity for him or his counsel to examine the books and papers of the said commissioners relative to the matter, and thereupon the circuit court of the county, where the appeal is taken, shall proceed to try and determine the matter according to the justice and rights of the matter, with or without the aid of a jury, as the parties may agree, or the court may order, and in all cases where the appeal is not sustained, the appellant shall pay the costs, and in all other cases the court shall direct the costs to be paid, in such manner, and by such party, as it may deem equitable and just; and the commissioners of the county shall be the appellee in such appeal, and levy as part of county charges, and pay whatever costs and charges are so ordered to be paid by them, and all incidental expenses not herein provided for.