

de's land to T. E. Lloyd's barn; thence to Samuel Hennessy's barn; thence to the beginning; and the commissioners aforesaid or a majority of them or their successors, shall have power to survey, locate and plot the said limits, and the same to establish and define by stone or other durable boundaries; and may if they deem advisable survey, locate and plot all lots, squares, streets, lanes, ways and alleys as at present existing; and such other lands or grounds as may be conceded for such purposes as necessary for the well-being and advantage of said town.

Commissioners to appoint clerk, &c.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners or a majority of them and their successors, shall as soon as may be after their appointment or election assemble at some suitable place and time, of which notice shall be given by a majority of their number; and appoint a clerk to the board, who may or may not be one of their number, and who shall take an oath before some Justice of the Peace, in Talbot county, well and faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and the said commissioners shall choose one of their own number as president of the board who shall have the privilege of voting upon all matters brought before the board; and the clerk shall administer to each one of the said commissioners, and to all other officers appointed by them, an oath or affirmation well and faithfully to discharge the duties of his office.

Vacancies—
how filled.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the board of commissioners shall be composed of five, of whom any three or more shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business; and any two of them may meet and impose or enforce the penalties of the by-laws upon delinquent members or offenders; and in case of a vacancy or vacancies in the board from any cause the remaining commissioners, or a majority of them, may fill such vacancy or vacancies until the next annual election by appointment.

Time of holding elections.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That an annual election for commissioners shall be held on the first Saturday in June of every year, at which any two or more of the acting board may be judges; and their clerk shall give notice thereof at one or more of the most public places in the said town, at least one week beforehand, and shall attend and keep record of the election under the direction of the judges, and notify those elected of their election; and if the election,