

should fail, or from any cause be prevented on that day, it may be held on any subsequent day after one week's notice given by the clerk; and at all such elections no person shall be entitled to vote nor eligible to office, unless he be a white male citizen, twenty-one years of age or over, compos mentis, and either a resident bona fide of said town for six months prior to the election, or holding property and paying town tax in said town for that time.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to appoint a clerk, bailiff, and all other necessary officers for the said town, to prescribe their duties and fix their compensation; may require and receive from each of them a bond in such penalty as they may determine, for the faithful performance of his trust, and may at any time remove any or all of them for malfeasance, neglect or other proper cause, and appoint others in their stead.

Bonds to be given.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the clerk shall be required to keep a full minute of all the proceedings of the board of commissioners, and record the same in a well bound book to be provided for that purpose by the commissioners, and at the commencement of said book, shall first record this act of incorporation, and all the surveys, limits, metes and bounds of the said town as ascertained by the said commissioners, and the baliff shall be required to preserve order, keep the peace, serve process, abate nuisances, and execute all orders of the board of commissioners, and for this purpose he shall have full power to command the peace, arrest offenders, collect moneys due the corporation, and generally to do all such acts and perform such duties as may be ordained by the board of commissioners, or established by the by-laws, as fully as a constable or sheriff, within the limits of said town, and in matters pertaining to the government and protection of said town.

Duty of clerk.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all the property of every sort whatsoever, whether real, personal or mixed, within the limits of said town, except such property as may be expressly exempted by law, shall be subject to taxation by the commissioners of Trappe, and the clerk to the commissioners shall procure a suitable book or books and enter therein the names of all the holders of the property in said town, whether they be residents or non-residents of the town, and the said commissioners shall ascertain as fully as in their power from all reliable sources, the items, descriptions,

Subject to taxation.