CHAPTER 314.

Passed Mar. 10, 1856.

AN ACT for the preservation, security, and keeping in order the public buildings, and the custody of the Fire apparatus belonging to the State, and appropriating a sum of money therefor.

To have general superintendence.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act that Llewellyn Boyle, of Anne Arundel county, the appointee of this Legislature as State Librarian, his successor when legally appointed and qualified, be charged with the general superintendance of the public buildings and grounds within the State House circle, as well as the fire apparatus belonging to the State, and that in execution of such general superintendance, he is hereby authorised to employ some competent person, who shall be required under his immediate control and direction, to keep in perfect order the said buildings and grounds, and whose compensation shall not exceed the sum of thirty dollars per month.

Senate Chamber, Hall, &c., to be kept in order.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That immediately after the adjournment of the Legislature, it shall be the duty of the person so employed, under his direction and superintendance, to clean and put in complete order the Hall or entrance to the State House, the Senate Chamber, and Hall of the House of Delegates, the committee rooms, keep them thoroughly cleaned and ventilated, and before each session, ar-
