

range the furniture, carpets, and desks, and prepare both chambers for the assembling of the Legislature.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Llewellyn Boyle, or his successor, shall and he is hereby directed to employ two free white male citizens, whose pay shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five dollars each per month, to watch and guard all the buildings and offices within the State House enclosure from nine o'clock, p. m., until daylight of each day, and to take charge of and keep in order the fire apparatus belonging to the State.

To employ watchmen.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Llewellyn Boyle, or his successor, be and he is hereby empowered to prepare a system of rules and regulations for the more effectual security and protection of the public buildings within the State House circle, and for the government of the watchman when on duty; and that it shall be the duty of the watchman when on duty to execute the same upon penalty of removal from office for neglect of duty.

To prepare a system of rules and regulations.

SEC. 5. And be enacted, That the said appointee of this Legislature, or his successor, when he shall enter upon the duties of his office, be and he is hereby authorised to have the Library repaired and furnished, and have the room adjoining the Court of Appeals room fitted up as a consultation room for said court, and that the sum of nine hundred dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated for said purposes, and that the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, pay the said sums of money specified, upon the certificate of Llewellyn Boyle, or his successor, out of any money not otherwise appropriated.

Sum appropriated.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.