

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an additional magistrate be and he is hereby granted to said district, who shall be appointed according to law, and shall have full power to discharge all the duties, have all the rights, and be subject to the same responsibilities of any magistrate or magistrates now in existence in said district. Additional magistrate to be appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at the next general election, the voters of said district shall be entitled to elect three justices of the peace for said district, anything in any other act to the contrary notwithstanding. Entitled to elect.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage. In force.

---

CHAPTER 317.

AN ACT amendatory of an act passed January session eighteen hundred and fifty-three, chapter three hundred, entitled, an act to provide for the election of Road Supervisors in the several counties in this State. Passed Mar. 10, 1856.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly that the supervisors of the public roads in Prince George's county are unable to procure the necessary labor for the repair of the roads of said county; therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it is hereby made the duty of the road supervisors elected under the provisions of the act to which this is amendatory, to give such notice as he or they may think proper, to the landholders in the several election districts of Prince George's county, when they intend working on the public roads, and in the event of their not being able to procure labor, to work out as much money as may be in their hands, they are then required to give at least ten days notice to each landholder, that he or she is required to send a number of hands equal to the whole number he or she may work on his or her land, for not more than Duty of Road Supervisors.