for collection for the years eighteen hundred and fifty-three and eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT supplementary to an act, passed at January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, chapter three hundred and twenty-five, entitled, an act relating to the trial of facts in the several circuit courts of this state. Passed March 10, 1856.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all civil cases which have been heretofore, or may hereafter be removed under the provisions of the original act to which this is a supplement, and in which a final judgment or decree has been or may be obtained, it shall and may be lawful for the clerk of the court in which said judgment or decree has been or may be obtained; and he is hereby authorised and required, on application of the plaintiff or plaintiffs in any such judgment or decree, to issue execution on said judgment or decree, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, rights and credits, of any defendant or defendants, lying and being in the county or the city of Baltimore, in which said case shall have been originally instituted, without first causing execution to be issued in the county or city of Baltimore, in which said judgment or decree may have been or shall hereafter be obtained. Civil cases removed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any such execution shall be directed to and served by the sheriff or coroner, as the case may require, of the county or city of Baltimore, in which the said case has been or may be originally instituted, and returned to the court of the county or city of which he is a sheriff or coroner; and it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff or plaintiffs, in order to entitle himself or themselves to the benefit of such execution, to produce before Execution to be served by sheriff.
